$98.78✓

Enclosed please find check for $98.²⁵ as above. The 1800 cent from previous lot you will notice is included in package, which squares our account to date. Have been handicapped the past 6 or 8 weeks in disposing of the finest quality of coin because of the coming Parmelee sale, the buyers of the best pieces all holding off until after that takes place, expecting, apparently, to secure just what they want at that time. Trusting package will reach you safely I remain

Yrs. Resp'y. J. C. Barnes.

Perhaps I should say - as you mention it particularly - that the 1801 cent when received had finger marks & the '96. a dark line across reverse. I am always particular myself in handling & try to see that those to whom I offer them treat pieces properly -

Boston, May 13/92,
Messrs. L. H. & H. Chapman
Gentlemen, -

Yours duly recd

The time was up some time in April when the party was to take the two pieces, but he has been unusually short & says has not so far been able to spare the money, he will doubtless pay for the 1804 shortly, that is in 3 or 4 weeks if not sooner, the '95 are not so sure of as he did not care so much for that and had to crowd it on him at time of sale, so that possibly I may not be able to make him take ^{that} soon if he is short but if he has the money this will go with the other.

He has a good income & usually has money, but "easy come easy go" & have to hit him when he is in funds. Am to see him tomorrow & he may be ready to take one or both.

I hold the pieces until paid for as I always do in such a case, so if you have party for one or both or do not care to wait longer for him I can return them if you wish, but unless you need them would advise you to wait for him as I feel sure he will take the 1804 & unless very short the other also.

Yours truly

Boston 9/9/92.

First time saw party since receipt of yours was to day met him on street just as he was leaving office to catch train said he could do nothing there but would try & fix it up soon now gave me $10. on ac. all he had with him that he could spare -

Had no idea this would string along as he usually pays for anything he takes within a reasonable time but he says channels that usually supply him with funds have run totally dry this summer & have kept him very short. Will try to have it balanced soon as possible. Yours truly J. H. B. B. B.

Gentlemen;-

My party has decided not to retain any of the pine trees, one or two of them he considered some time but finally decided to let them pass.

I have returned them this a.m. by X.

Have been using some colonials lately, if you have anything specially rare & choice or unusually fine for the pine you might mention it if you like & I will see if parties care for it -

There was an extra pine in your package not on the list, nor was the box marked or ticketed in any way, probably an oversight in not marking or some other pine was submitted to be put in -

Wells Chapman:-

Answering yours would say that have seen the parties they are "might take if price & conditions were satisfactory" one of these is interested in might use some of the Washington mentioned.

As to what they would pay total amt. I am entirely at sea but could answer it by saying that they are able to take $100. or more if they wish but are conservative buyers & conditions & variety of prices must fully warrant prices asked. I cannot say more definitely than this as to chances of sale, it will be just as the say if prices & prices suit they would buy, otherwise not. If you send put in max. cents viz extra rare & choice some N. J. int to think no chance on Conn or

Vermont, the Immune & Washington & any other specially good things not spoken of but keep prices low as possible they will not pay fancy figures, the price whether priced at $10 or $1.00 has got to be fully worth the money in their estimation or they won't touch it.

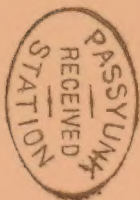

This may not be very definite but covers the ground as near as I can get at it at this time. Should you find just in only specially fine rare or interesting pieces keep price low as you can & I will plan them if possible -

Yours truly

Gentlemen:-

Have just lately been able to see the party on the Washington, he went across the pond & on his return was taken sick so that have been unable to do any thing about it, I did not return as you previously said to hold until I could see the party in regard to it - He considered over it some time but finally decided that as he had a perfect specimen of the other one he would not keep this at the price simply on account of the edge. Thank you for returning the correct price & am sorry not to be able to place it -

Yours truly

J. W. Barnes

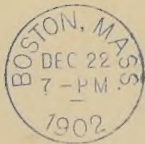

If you have the rare continental dollar might let me know conditions & price as possibly could use it.
